

PRESS RELEASE

Sziget tickets on sale from 2 November

The 21st edition of Sziget Festival will take place between 5 and 12 August 2013 at the well known island venue, in the heart of Budapest. Ticket sales starts on 2 November with discounted early bird prices.

„Our aim is to make sure that Sziget stays a great value for money. Of course it’s hard to keep up with band fees that are rising all the time, while Sziget is also one of the longest events out there, providing a very high standard of services. This all means that our costs are huge, nevertheless we’re still confident that our 2013 prices represent a fair balance between quality and affordability.” – said Tamas Kadar, CEO of Sziget Cultural Management.

The 2013 prices are indeed very close to last year, so in the early bird period fans can buy weekly passes - valid for 7 days with camping possibilities - for 199 EUR, or 5-day non-camping passes for 169 EUR. Day tickets cost 45 EUR and the VIP and caravan camping upgrades will be sold for 130 EUR.

Sziget ticket sales starts on 2 November and the early bird period ends on 5 May. Tickets will be available both from the webshop of szigetfestival.com and at our international retail partners.

If you want to help the work of the organizing team, please make sure you vote on Sziget (in the category of major festivals) and Heineken Balaton Sound (category of medium festivals) at the European Festival Awards (<https://www.surveymonkey.com/s/efa2012>).

More information on the event: www.szigetfestival.com

Budapest, 17 October 2012